Hello and welcome to Pineapple Hunt. In this first screen you will see our Branding Screen consisting of a Pentagram and our Names in native african tribe font. Next we get to the main screen, which has a begin button and a credits button. We are going to click the begin button and begin the game immediately. The game begins and your goal is to click pineapple to kill them. Every 3 seconds the score goes down by 2. Every tap gives you 4 points and a satisfying gunshot sound. At the top you can quit the game or go directly to the credits. We are going to win the game really quick.Wow we just won! We get a notifier telling us this and now we get to go to the credits by clicking this here. Haha just kidding you go to shaq screen and here you can click the button no to get to the main screen. Now we see the main screen again. Let's click credits. Oops clicked begin game. Now we can show you the quit game feature. You can click yes or no and quit the game back to the main screen. Now let's go into the credits and we can see it was designed by Qayz Nurani and Jesse Gordon. Thanks for watching!
